

Article 1. Structure

The collective "Un Peu Plus Tôt" (hereinafter the Collective) launched an online contest named "Europe in a word" from February 15, 2014 at 00:00 to 26 May 2014 at 23:59 on its website www.europemovingimage.eu. The organization is administered by "Un Peu Plus Tôt"- 59 rue Voltaire – 93100 Montreuil- France.

Article 2. Purpose of the competition

The competition "Europe in a word" is initiated in relation to the launch of the project " Europe Moving Image". The project was launched in 2013 and received a grant from the European Youth in Action Programme.

A contest available from URL www.europemovingimage.eu is organized by the Collective in relation to this project. Participants have to make a film with a maximum duration of 10 minutes. The theme is "Europe in a word".

Article 3. Participants

3.1 This contest is open to Internet users under 30 years old with a valid internet address. The participation is free of charge.

3.2 Minors under 18 years old can participate under the responsibility of their legal representative. Minors must be in possession of an authorization of their legal guardian allowing them to enter the competition. The Collective reserve its right to request this authorization at any time during the duration of the competition.

3.4 Participants must own the property rights of each image used in their film. Each participant must post his film on a video platform and send the link of their film to the Collective. The Collective reserve its right to project the film on its website for a period of one year. The participant can also send his film on the website www.wetransfer.com and allows the Collective to publish his work via VIMEO.

3.5 The contest has an individual character. Prizes will be awarded to the person whose details are given in the registration form.

3.6 Participation is limited to 5 films per person (same name / same email address).

Article 4. Terms of participation

4.1 To participate , users are invited to:

- Accept this Regulation (hereinafter the Regulation) in its entirety
- Complete the registration form on the website europemovingimage.eu
- Submit a film meeting the requirements of the aforementioned sections 5.3 to 5.11
- Submit the film on VIMEO video platform and send the link to the Collective before May 26, 2014 (11:59 p.m.). Submission can also be made under 2 gigas via a file-sharing platform (WeTransfer , dropbox , googledrive , etc.). at info@europemovingimage.eu.

4.2 In case of change of contact information, the participant must notify the Collective as soon as possible by e-mail at the following address :
info@europemovingimage.eu.

The Collective reserves its right to invalidate the contribution if the information provided during registration are incorrect, inaccurate, obsolete or incomplete.

4.3 Participants are invited to make a film according to the given theme of a maximum duration of ten minutes including video images, still images , sound, and music.

4.4 The submitted films must include :

Cardboard start " Europe in a word " available on the site.

An original title

The names of the director(s)

The date and place of realisation

4.5 Films submitted must not be :

- pornographic , erotic , racist, pedophile or indecent for minors.
- defamatory, libellous, slanderous or disparaging towards third parties, natural or legal persons ;
- Affecting the privacy of individuals or to the image reproduction rights of any third party or non- participants ;
- Infringing intellectual or industrial property rights of a third party (including the texts and sounds that may be used).
- Contrary to existing French law.

4.6 The participant is solely responsible for his contribution. The participant must ensure that the content of his film does not violate local, regional, national or international law including:

- any provision relating to the respect for private life, the right of the press, intellectual property rights, in particular copyright , patent right , trademark law and the image reproduction right;
- applicable laws regarding computer fraud;
- the rules of public policy, including regulations on pornographic and pedophile content ; the legislation applicable to minors;

4.7 The participant must not submit a contribution that would promote or provide information about illegal activities, violence or inciting violence towards individuals or groups of people ;

4.8 The participant must not advertise its contribution ;

The participant must not undermine the image and the reputation of Europe Moving Image .

4.9 In the presence of a content that would directly or indirectly be in breach of one of the above mentioned criteria, or would not meet the eligibility criteria, The Collective can exercised its discretion not to publish the film.

Article 5. Selection by the jury

A selection committee composed of members of the Collective will meet and preselect films on the basis of the following criteria : Adherence to topic : "If you had to define Europe in a word ";

The jury will then choose the winning film among the films posted on the contest site based on the above mentioned criteria.

The jury appointed by the Collective will be composed of cinema, art and culture professionals and designate two awards:

First prize will receive a grant of 1,000 (one thousand) euros.

The Audience Award will receive an allocation of 500 (five hundred) euros.

The group will proceed to settle these amounts by bank transfer within 30 days (thirty days) from the date of notification to the winners.

The Collective reserves its right to add one or more prizes at any time without prior notice.

Article 6. Audience Award

Visitors have the opportunity to vote for the film set on the competition website from March 15 at midnight to May 26, 2014 at 00h .

Visitors must log on to the contest website and follow the instructions. Votes are limited to one vote per person (same name / valid e -mail address) for each film. The Audience Award will be awarded to the film scoring the highest number of votes and will receive an allocation of 500 (five hundred) euros.

Article 7. Deliberation – Awards

The competition results will be announced on June 15, 2014.

Winners will be notified by email. Winners must come forward within 30 days after being solicited by the Collective. The Collective reserves its right to award the prize to other participants or to cancel the assignation of the prize if the winners do not come forward within the time limits mentioned in the Article 7 of the Regulation.

Article 8. Dissemination and transfer of rights on Movies " Europe in a word "

Films in the competition " Europe in a word " will be released on the "Europe moving image" website and on a VIMEDO chain under the CC BY -NC- SA 2.0 license (Creative Commons - Attribution - no use commercial - sharing initial Alike - 2.0 France). They will be subject to a public vote and jury selection.

In order to promote the participants' works, all the Films can be diffused from reception by the Collective and without limitation of duration on the Collective website or during public projections ; or by the Collective partners.

Article 9. Operation

Participants guarantee the Collective peaceable enjoyment of assigned rights against any trouble, any claim or eviction. They declare and certify that films entered in the contest "Europe in a word" are their own work. They must be marked with an original copy excluding any copyrighted material or infringement of any kind of protected element by laws, international conventions, regulations or intellectual property rights. They guarantee the Collective against all claims by third parties relating to the use of their music, their images or any protected element that could cause injury or disorder to a third party.

Article 10. Promotion

As part of the promotion of “Europe in a word” and “Europe moving image” the Collective will be able to broadcast the submitted films on any support.

Extracts of selected films can also be used for purposes of internal and external communication.

Article 11. Privacy and protection of personal data

The personal data collected on participants in the contest are required and necessary for the organization of the contest and the awarding of prizes. The Promoter is bound by professional secrecy with regard to these data .

Participants have a right of access, rectification and opposition to their data. This right may be exercised upon written request addressed to the Collective Un Peu Plus Tôt 59 rue Voltaire 93100 Montreuil. Personal data shall be processed in accordance with the Data Protection Act of January 6 1978.

Article 12. Competition Rules

Entrants must have read these rules before recording a movie on the website. By registering a film on the website www.europemovingimage.eu the participant accepts the Regulation.

Participation in the contest implies full acceptance of these rules.

These regulations may be amended at any time by the Collective " Un Peu Plus Tôt ". The amended version of the regulation will be immediately posted on the website Europemovingimage.eu.

Article 13. Cancellation of the contest

The Collective reserves its right to shorten, extend or cancel the competition. The validity of the competition is subject to the participation of at least fifteen (15) films selected by the committee. The presence of a minimum of fifteen (15) films is justified by the need to have a sufficient choice to conduct a fair selection of winners. The group will be entitled to cancel the competition without designation of winners, in case of selection of less than fifteen (15) films after the contest.

Article 14. Deposit of Regulation

The Present Regulation is subject to French law.

The Regulation is available on the competition website and can be sent by e-mail upon individual request at the following address tinfo@europemovingimage.eu.

Article 15. Applicable law

In case of dispute, the courts of Paris will have exclusive jurisdiction .

If any provision of this regulation is unlawful, invalid or unenforceable it shall be deemed unwritten. The validity and enforceability of the remaining rules of the Regulation shall not be affected.